

SHANGHAI MUNICIPAL POLICE.

REPORT

244-12
 INDEXED
 Date May 15 1933

Subject (in full) P.G. Just, Soviet Official.

Made by D.S. Prokofiev

Forwarded by OBK. D.I.

With reference to the attached translation from French Police Daily Intelligence report dated January 10, 1933, enquiries have failed to verify the information regarding the presence in Shanghai of one P.G. Just who is believed to be an agent of the People's Commissariat of Foreign Affairs.

So far, no information has been received regarding the arrival in Shanghai of members of the Soviet diplomatic or consular staff who are married to Chinese.

A. Prokofiev
 D. S.

Officer i/c Special Branch.

File
JH
 MAY 22 1933

SECRETAL BUREAU
B. REGISTRATION
D. 4412
13/1 23

Translation of extract from French Police Daily Intelligence Report dated January 10, 1933

Parag. I.

Information regarding P.G. Lust

We learn that a certain P.G. Lust arrived in Shanghai from the U.S.S.R. recently. He is believed to be an agent of the People's Commissariat of Foreign Affairs. He arrived in company with his wife, a Chinese, who is believed to have attended propaganda training course at Moscow. P.G. Lust speaks Chinese fluently. On January 8, together with his wife, he proceeded to Hankow by rail. While in Shanghai he resided with I. Babitch, sub-manager of the local branch of the Centrosojus, in Apartment No 308, Majestic Apartments.

We are informed from another source that several other Soviet agents, employed by the People's Commissariat of Foreign Affairs or by INO (Foreign Service of the G.P.U.) and who are married to Chinese, will arrive in China shortly. It is believed that they will be sent in the interior of the country where they will be attached to the future Consulates of the U.S.S.R.

SI, Please see and pass back to SI watch and report in case of developments. JH 13/1 23